

UNIVERSITY OF CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge
Interfaith Programme

The Faculty of Divinity & Cambridge Interfaith Programme present

Tomáš Halík

A Cambridge Conference

Celebrating the ongoing life and work
of the Czech Catholic
priest, philosopher,
theologian—
on atheism
on secularity
on pluralism
on the future of faith
& the church.

12 & 13 DECEMBER 2024

Featuring Tomáš Halík + a distinguished array of keynote speakers & panelists: Charles Taylor · Rowan Williams · Karen Kilby · Alister McGrath
Arabella Milbank Robinson · Grace Davie · Martin
Koci · George van Kooten · Adéla Muchová et al.

Registration closes: 15 November £40 standard. £15 concessions.

More information

Venue: Old Divinity School (St John's College)

This event is made possible by generous support from the Sekyra Foundation.

Conference organisers: Faculty of Divinity PhD candidates Aden Cotterill, Abraham Wu, and Isabel Jahnke, supported by Professor David Fergusson

Featured image: Tomáš Halík, courtesy of the Kristin Olson Literary Agency (halik.cz).

www.interfaith.cam.ac.uk/events

Schedule

Thursday 12 December

09:00 | Registration

09:30 | Introduction and welcome

10:00 | Keynote

Tomáš Halík

Religion and transformation

11:15 | Refreshment break

11:45 | Keynote

Karen Kilby

Paradox and slippage:
on kenosis, wounds and the Church's self-understanding

13:00 | Lunch

14:00 | Short papers

16:00 | Refreshment break

16:30 | Keynote (via livestream)

Charles Taylor

Tomáš Halík:

a beacon for seekers

17:30 Close of day

About the Sekyra Foundation. Established by Czech businessman Ludek Sekyra to support human rights, moral universalism, liberal values and civil society, the Foundation also aids the development of critical and philosophical thought. It supports academic institutions and educational projects, including the publication of works by significant thinkers.

Friday 13 December

09:30 | Keynote

Alister McGrath

Tomáš Halík and apologetics:
reflections on the challenges facing the churches in a post-Christian age

10:45 | Refreshment break

11:15 | Keynote

Rowan Williams

"Little Faith": defining faith in conversation with Tomáš Halík

12:30 | Lunch

13:30 | Panel

Chaired by Arabella Milbank Robinson (Cambridge) with

- Grace Davie (Exeter)
- Martin Koci (KU Linz)
- George van Kooten
(Cambridge)
- Adéla Muchová (KU Linz)

15:00 | Concluding remarks

15:15 Close

Conference organisers:

Aden Cotterill, Abraham Wu,
and Isabel Jahnke (Faculty of Divinity, Cambridge), supported by Professor David Fergusson &
the Cambridge Interfaith Programme.

Featured image: Tomáš Halík, courtesy of the Kristin Olson Literary Agency (halik.cz).